MAKING HER PLACE: RESISTING GENDER PERFORMANCE IN MAKER SPACES

Why don't more women come to our makerspace? Makerspaces promise the chance for all to use creative technologies to learn and build. But growing a truly diverse, engaged maker community requires more than just having the coolest gear or the biggest shop. This presentation argues that makerspaces must be active in crafting a culture that resists normative privileges. A director of Quelab, Albuquerque's premiere makerspace, Cameron Goble will facilitate an investigation into ways to create places that meet the
